

Love in Unlikely Places — OPPORTUNITIES FOR A LOVE CONNECTION

While love is an unexpected adventure, the quest for love can be just as random. As you probably know, meeting new people is exciting and enjoyable but finding “the one” can be a little more challenging. If you want to find exciting new faces, you simply have to go where they are.

We are all aware of the conventional places to meet people, but the trick to winning the game of love today is thinking outside the box. Below are some great places to check out. Remember, love often happens when we least expect it, so get out there and play the field!

Recipe for romance

Learn how to bring the fresh aromas you experienced at your favorite restaurant to the comfort of your own home and meet new people at the same time. Being trained in the culinary arts can help you satisfy your hunger for food and love. The recipe for romance is always more fun with company. Remember—the way to most men’s and women’s hearts is through their stomachs.

Explore the opportunities

Choose to spend a day exploring your neighborhood or a trendy spot in the city. Use your travel skills to uncover the hidden gems of the area. You never know who you might meet along the way.

Get sweaty with love

Over extended periods of time, gym routines can become dull and repetitive. Why not try group training sessions outdoors to increase your chances of finding love? These sessions are designed to help you build your strength and endurance, but they may also help you develop an appetite for a different kind of workout. Don’t be surprised if others in the group are thinking the exact same thing.

Green love

These days, being green is the new black. Why not join in and walk/run for a cause, become a member of a group or organization that shares your philanthropic views, or help out at an eco-friendly event? You’re guaranteed to feel great and potentially meet another passionate and earthy individual. Love often blooms in the most unexpected places.

Ridiculous romance

Laughter is the greatest gift and an incredible way to start a conversation. Treat yourself to an atmosphere filled with laughter, like a play at your local theater or a comedy revue, and at the very least you’ll be entertained. Enjoy this opportunity to meet someone with a sense of humor. Even if it’s not that special someone, you’ll have a good time.

Cheers to love

Countries like France and Italy may ooze romance, but who says you have to trek across the ocean for that experience? Relax and escape to a local vineyard for a group wine tour. In addition to a glass of merlot, most wine tours also offer a delicious lunch and plenty of socializing opportunities. With a romantic atmosphere that pairs food and wine, romance won’t be far from anyone’s mind.
